

Above: The Parsons around 1900 with daughters Alberta and Carrie Belle.

Top Rt: (from left to right) Carrie Belle, Jeanette, and Alberta around 1904

Bottom Rt: The Handle Factory in Cortland, Ohio where Great-Grandfather Parsons worked.

Clockwise from above: Great-Grandma Parsons; Grandma Jeanette (front row right) graduation from nursing school; Grandma and Grandpa Elmer (Mom's Dad); Grandma and Abe; Great-grandma Parsons enjoying some sea air in Corpus Christi, TX

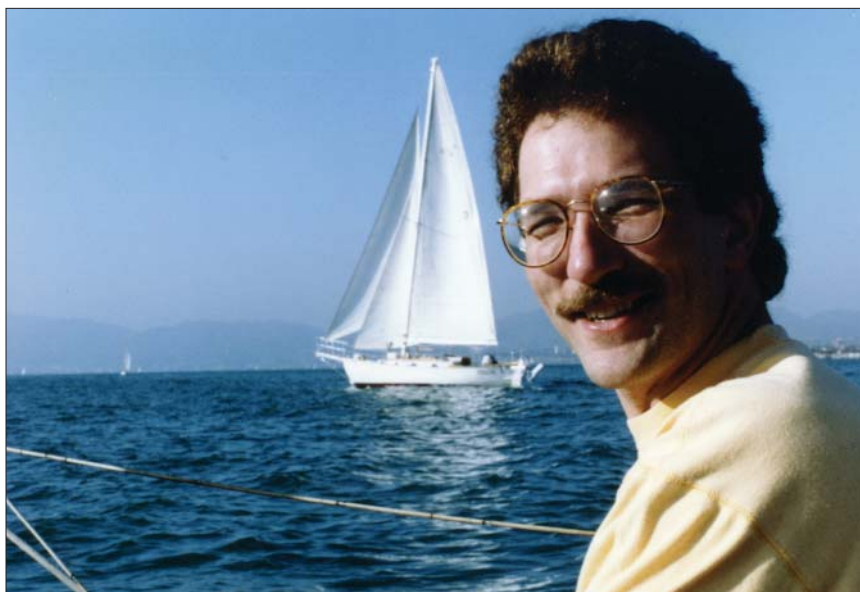

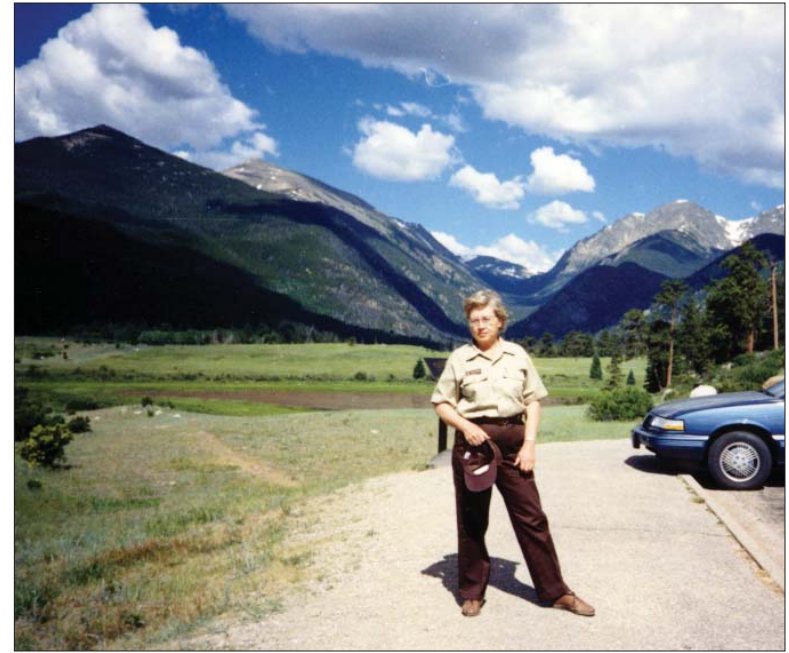

Clockwise from above: On the couch at Grandma Elston's; Mike's birthday party 1960; Mike and Sue with Mom and Dad - Ramblin Family; The family with Christina Mendoza from Mexico.

Clockwise from above: Tim leaving the hospital in 1972;
Captain Mike in Wyoming in 1985; Sue and Joe sailing in Los Angeles in 1990s with; Gary enjoying the sunshine.

Clockwise from above: At Chich'en Itza in the Yucatan, Mexico; volunteer Park Ranger at Estes Park; volunteer for the Elk Bugle Corp; enjoying the backyard view in the Rockies.

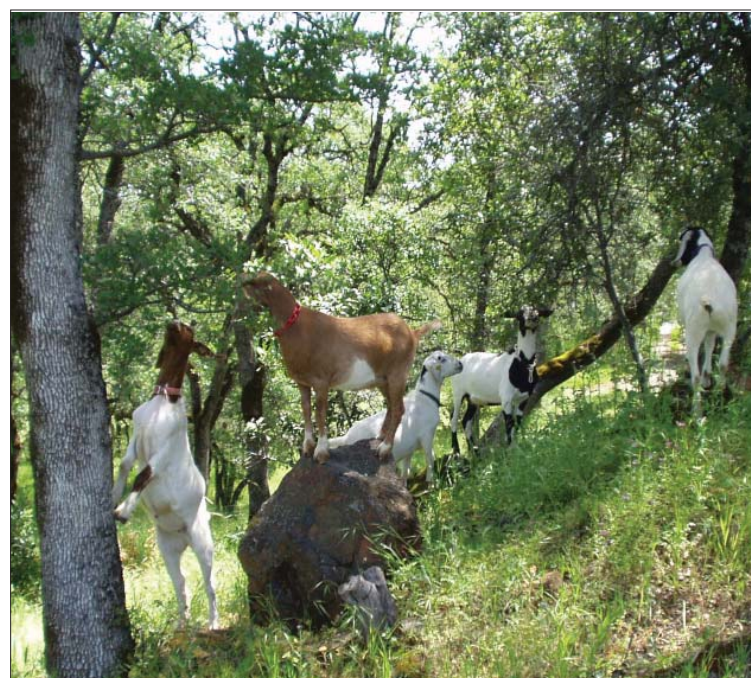

Clockwise from above: Sue, Joe and Angie at Joe's Army basic training graduation - 2004; Your first great-grandson J.D. (Joe) with his friend Idaho - 2006; Angela and Hilma; The Wyoming Elstons at Aaron's high school graduation - 2005.

Photos of our rental bio-engineers masticating the over-grown plant life. More fun than mechanical masticators and more fun to pet!

Above: Our friend Bill with two of the 83 baby goats they had in the spring
Below: On the way to work past the California poppies

Above: Armadillo the llama standing guard over his herd.
Below: Kara giving lessons to attentive students on proper mastication of Manzanita branches.

Above: A raccon track on the steps leading to the cats' food dish.

Center: Kara in the snowfall

Below: Snow - early spring 2006

Above: Early daffodils in the late snow

Below: A rainbow over the house in springtime

Above photos: Tony and Tim working on the gutters in September
Below photos: Tim finally painting the downspouts on Christmas day

